

HighGrove Partners responded to an RFP from the City of Newnan to further develop and document a city park located on historical Greenville Street in downtown Newnan. HG was awarded the project and since then provided additional services to further enhance the design intent of this urban infill park. HG also provided full construction documentation, hardscape plans, drawings, and represented the client through the bidding process. The project is currently under construction and in the construction administration phase.

