

The Internet Security Systems Corporate facility, located in Sandy Springs, GA, is an example of contemporary landscape design. HighGrove Partners was asked to create the design of the courtyard between two buildings, which includes a half basketball court, café sitting area, waterfall feature, as well as other hardscape and landscape features. HighGrove also installed and currently maintains the property. The project was completed in 2001.

